The piano introduction consists of two systems of music. The first system features a treble clef staff with a melody in G major (one sharp) and a 3/4 time signature. The bass clef staff provides a rhythmic accompaniment with chords. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment, ending with a fermata on the final note.

One summer eve, with pensive thought, I wander'd on the sea-beat

The first system of the vocal melody is written on a treble clef staff. It begins with a half rest followed by a quarter note G, then a half note A, and continues with eighth and quarter notes. The piano accompaniment is in the bass clef, featuring a steady eighth-note pattern.

shore Where oft in heed-less in-fant sport I gather'd shells in days be-fore, I gather'd

The second system of the vocal melody continues the melody from the first system. It includes the lyrics 'shore Where oft in heed-less in-fant sport I gather'd shells in days be-fore, I gather'd'. The piano accompaniment remains consistent with the eighth-note pattern.
